

Important things to do

Check list

- Make a police report
- Make a notification of a claim with your insurance company, or contact its public safety answering point
- Contact the Swedish embassy or consulate in the country where the crime occurred
- If you need support in the country where the crime occurred, contact a crime victim support organisation, the Church of Sweden abroad, or visit the websites below for more information

Information about support and rights for victims of terrorism

- The UN support portal for victims of terrorism, un.org/victimsofterrorism/en/about/support-portal
- The EU Centre of Expertise for Victims of Terrorism, EUCVT
Email: eucvt@victimsupporteurope.eu
Phone: +32 (0) 23 46 04 55
- Victim Support Europe
victimsupporteurope.eu
- The European e-Justice Portal
e-justice.europa.eu

For more information, visit the Swedish Crime Victim Authority's website brottsoffermyndigheten.se/terrorism